12/3/18

Ethan,

Well its Monday, Laundry day. You get to put your clothes in the washer then wait an hour, then put them in the dryer & wait an hour, Then fold & put away, wow! so much fun. Does the army do your Laundry or do you do it yourself?

Seems like we meet new people everyday & half of them are army vets who spent time in Vietnam. Small World I guess.

Hows everything going for you. I hope you get a Christmas break so we can spend some time together.

The dog is almost completely house broke but she's a baby & wants to be held all the time. She usually plays for about a ½ hour then takes a nap for about an hour. Such is the life of a puppy.

Glad you got to tex us & Matt was real happy you texed him.

Well it finally stopped raining for a while, but the temperature is Really great.

I'll close for now, talk to you by letter again Tomarrow! We love you!
